

K-5 General Education Teacher

A K-5 General Education Teacher at Brooklyn Charter School will:

- Plan, prepare, and deliver lesson plans and instructional materials that facilitate active learning.
- Develop effective lesson plans and tests that are in accordance with established procedures.
- Build a classroom culture that is characterized by high academic and behavioral expectations, prioritizing a safe and caring environment that is also warm and welcoming for scholars to learn and grow.
- Effectively prepare for all units, lessons, and assessments by using the materials provided.
- Engage scholars intellectually by maintaining high levels of rigor, intellectual curiosity, high-quality discussions, and joy for learning.
- Use formal and informal assessment data to drive instruction and ensure mastery.
- Actively participate in grade-level meetings, content team meetings, collaborative planning, data analysis, and action planning.
- Innovate, challenge, and push excellence with your scholars at all times.
- Proactively communicate with families.
- Participate in professional development from leaders and peers.
- Advise families of scholar progress such as their scholar's achievements; develop methods for improvement and/or reinforcing classroom goals in the home environment.

Qualifications

- Individuals with New York State certification in Childhood Education grades 1-6 who are passionate about rigorous academics, student achievement data, and high expectations will be highly considered.
- Bachelor's degree required, Master's Degree preferred
- A minimum of two years of teaching experience in an urban school setting is preferred however, we will consider recent college graduates.
- Highly effective writing, oral and interpersonal skills to communicate with a varied audience

Salary: From $60,000 (salaries are based on credentials and years of experience)

Grades 1-5 Special Education Teacher (ICT)

A Special Education Teacher at Brooklyn Charter School will:

- Plan, prepare, and deliver lesson plans and instructional materials that facilitate active learning.
- Develop effective lesson plans and tests that are in accordance with established procedures.
- Build a classroom culture that is characterized by high academic and behavioral expectations, prioritizing a safe and caring environment that is also warm and welcoming for scholars to learn and grow.
- Effectively prepare for all units, lessons, and assessments by using the materials provided.
- Engage scholars intellectually by maintaining high levels of rigor, intellectual curiosity, high-quality discussions, and joy for learning.
- Use formal and informal assessment data to drive instruction and ensure mastery.
- Actively participate in grade-level meetings, content team meetings, collaborative planning, data analysis, and action planning.
- Innovate, challenge, and push excellence with your scholars at all times.
- Proactively communicate with families.
- Participate in professional development from leaders and peers.
- Advise families of scholar progress such as their scholar's achievements; develop methods for improvement and/or reinforcing classroom goals in the home environment.
- Additionally, ICT teachers will:
 - Differentiate small group instruction for scholars with special needs.
 - Prepare scholar-individualized education plans in consultation with staff and families to ensure success for all scholars.
 - Utilize formal and informal assessment data to drive instruction and ensure student mastery of standards and IEP goals.

Qualifications

- Individuals with New York State certification in Students with Disabilities grades 1-6 who are passionate about rigorous academics, student achievement data, and high expectations will be highly considered.
- Bachelor's degree required, Master's Degree preferred
- Minimum two years teaching experience in an urban setting is preferred however recent college graduates will be accepted.
- Highly effective writing, oral and interpersonal skills to communicate with a varied audience

Salary: From $60,000 (based on credentials and years of experience)